

Northwest News | 7 November, 2023

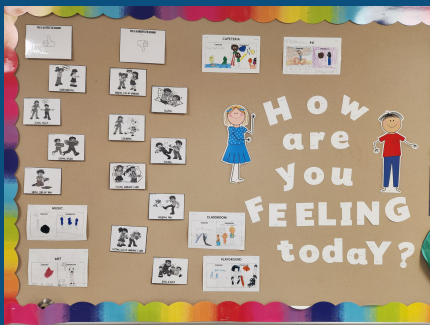

STARS NEWSLETTER

STAR COMMITMENT

At Northwest, we collaborate to empower all learners to maximize their potential.

STARS SHINE

- Behavioral specialists checked in on student emotions while finding ways to recognize and regulate emotions.

STAR PARENTS

- Have you joined? Click here to join our campus parent teacher organization.
- We need volunteers! Interested? Fill out this form.
- Fill out the socioeconomic form to keep free lunches and breakfast!

IMPORTANT DATES

- ✓ November 8: St. David's health van
- ✓ November 9: Thanksgiving Lunch
- ✓ November 15: Thanksgiving Sing Along
- ✓ November 20-24: Break/No School
- ✓ December 7: 4:30-6:30 PM Science Fair
- ✓ December 21: Early Release
- ✓ December 22: Winter Break starts

ATTENDANCE

LATE BELL AT 7:35

DISMISSAL/PICK UP AT 2:50

OFFICE CLOSES AT 3:30

Alondra Moreno

STAFF STAR

WHERE DID YOU GO TO SCHOOL?

Pflugerville High School

WHAT WAS YOUR CHILDHOOD DREAM JOB?

Police Officer

WHAT INSPIRED YOU TO TEACH?

Her Avid teacher at school

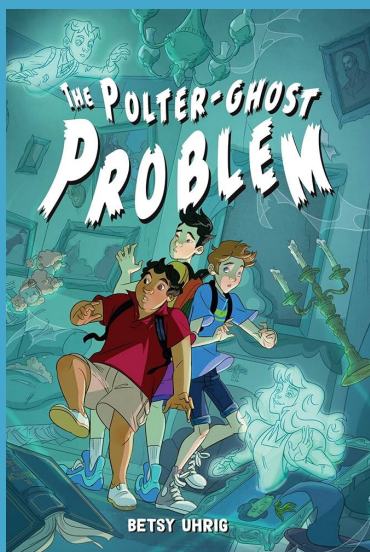

FUN FACT

She is double-jointed in both thumbs!

FAVORITE SELF-CARE TREAT

Shopping!

FEATURED BOOK

What are you currently reading?

STAR FACT

- ☒ We look back into time every time we look at a star (like our sun)!

COUNSELOR'S CORNER

Click here to access Ms. Pena, the School Counselor's website that contains additional information.

GRADING NEWS

- End of 9 weeks (report card) October 20
- Report cards published: October 27
- Please ask your child about their homework.
- Practice reading at least 20 minutes a day

Parent liaison Corner

NWES is partnering with Brown Santa to help families during the holiday season. Scan the link above with your phone to apply..

Coats for Kids

Dreading Cold Weather because your child doesn't have the proper coat? Coats for Kids is here to help. Please call the Northwest Parent Liaison, Janet Hornsby at (512) 594-4465 for assistance.