

Summer Reading Fun 2021

Don't stop reading just because school is out! Try to read all summer long to learn new things and grow your reading skills. Here are ways you can stay connected to great books.

Reading on Clever...

Epic

Many of our students have been reading on Epic this year! To keep using Epic this summer, parents have to sign up with their email to create an account. Students will get 2 hours of free weekly access to a limited selection of books. You'll see a prompt when you try to log into Epic after 4pm Monday through Friday. Find more information at

Sora

This is the school version of Overdrive with ebooks and audiobooks. Sweet Reads gives unlimited access to a set of books for the summer. Other titles check out like a regular library book. You can also link to digital ebooks and audio books at Pflugerville Public Library. See the TES homepage for help getting started. Please use Read a Sample to decide if a book is a good fit for you before you borrow it or put it on hold.

Learning A-Z

We have a district reading challenge this summer through Raz-Plus. Read to earn stars for your avatar. Top students and schools will earn prizes!

Even more reading apps!

Clever has so many reading apps available. Use the ones you know, but you could also try something new, including:

EBSCO K-8 Ebook Collection
National Geographic Kids
Capstone

TES Library Catalog

Search for ebooks you can open right from the catalog. There are also fun links to try!
